The main stage at Art Basel has some competition this year, as local venues roll out an impressive roster of shows just a stone's throw from throngs of fair-goers. From Wolfgang Tillmans at Fondation Beyeler to Wim Delvoye at Museum Tinguely, here are the shows you can't afford to miss beyond Basel.

10. “JUDD / MALEVICH” at Galerie Gmurzynska, June 10–September 15, 2017

This new exhibition harkens back to an earlier show featuring the same artists, Donald Judd and Kazimir Malevich, at Galerie Gmurzynska in 1994, titled “The Moscow Installation.” Malevich’s contribution to art history had a tremendous impact on the aesthetic of Judd, with both artists striving to embody the notion of a gesamtkunstwerk, an entire world of creation.
